UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

TECHNICAL SERGEANT BRITTANY A. MORGAN

TSgt Brittany Ann Morgan is the Noncommissioned Officer-in-Charge of Administrative Actions, Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC) Detachment 010 at the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa. Her responsibilities include recruiting, motivating, training, educating and evaluating Air Force officer candidates aspiring to become Air Force Officers in a 4-year college-level program. She also extends those services to candidates at three cross-town schools--University of West Alabama, Stillman College, and Marion Military Institute. She is the Detachment focal point for approximately 161 officer candidates and 5 active-duty military members on staff. She oversees information flow to HQ AFROTC, Air Force Personnel Center, The Department of Defense Medical Examination Review Board and the Pentagon. In addition to her unit support functions, she is also responsible for processing and tracking taskers, personnel records, evaluations, decorations, awards, physical fitness, pay and medical records for the officer candidates and detachment personnel.

SSgt Morgan, originally from Tullahoma, Tennessee, enlisted in the Airforce in March 2014. Upon completion of Basic Military Training at Lackland AFB, Texas, she attended technical training as a Knowledge Operations Manager at Keesler Air Force Base, Mississippi. Her assignments include an overseas tour to Thule Air Base, Greenland, along with assignments in Florida and Nevada.
