

BIOGRAPHY

UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

CAPTAIN MICHAEL A. SHECK

Capt. Michael A. Sheck serves as an Assistant Professor of Aerospace Studies at Detachment 010. He advises, mentors and evaluates the leadership capabilities of over 100 officer candidates at The University of Alabama and three neighboring colleges: Marion Military Institute, Stillman College, and the University of West Alabama. Capt. Sheck also acts as the Detachment Recruiting Officer, identifying and recruiting highly eligible candidates for the program.

Capt. Sheck received his commission in 2016 through Officer Training School following 9 years of enlisted service where he served as a Korean Linguist. He holds a master's degree in Global Security Studies from Angelo State University located in San Angelo, Texas.

Capt. Sheck has performed duties as a Mission Operations Commander, Instructor, and Geopolitical Advisor. As the Iran Geopolitical Team Chief at USCENTCOM Headquarters, he was selected to serve on both the commander's Congressional Supports Staff and as the Middle East region Senior Intelligence Analyst, travelling to countries including Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, Qatar, Kuwait and throughout Europe to promote U.S. national security interests abroad. As Mission Operations Commander, he oversaw the efforts of 147 intelligence analysts during 200+ INDOPACOM missions in support of U.S.–South Korea defense efforts in the Indo-Pacific region.
